.....FOREWORD

As we look into the future, we realize the many problems which we must face. The knowledge attained at our Alma Mater will help us greatly in the years to come. After graduation our search for knowledge does not end. We will continue this search throughout our lives. In the 1961 Tiger Tale we take pride in presenting the pictorial story of "Our Search for Knowledge."

DEDICATION

Because you came through these doors early in the day, and did not leave till dark, giving your day to youth;

Because you have known us all - the talented and the untalented - and to each one of us you have given of your time and your talents;

Because, through hard work and patient understanding, the F. J. H. S. musical organizations have become organizations of which to be proud;

Because of these things, and with deep gratitude, MR. CURVOUS STAUFFER, we dedicate our book to you.

The Senior Class expresses their sincere appreciation to Miss Joan Schoelkopf and Mr. Walter Hutz, our class advisors. Their encouragement, understanding, and kindness have been an inspiration to all of us.

JR. CLASS PLAY

JR. CLASS PLAY

Ten poeple have gathered in the gloomy, wind-swept Castle Wentz to hear the reading of the Will of August Wentz. Suddenly, however, the heirs begin to disappear, and the remaining people are shocked by strange sounds from a mysterious phantom who haunts the room where the heirs must stay. "The Case of the Missing Heirs", full of suspense and comedy, brought delight to a full-house of spectators.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL

Annually the Seniors hold a Halloween Social. In this event each grade or home room in the building plans an activity to raise funds. All of the proceeds are donated to the Seniors for their activities during the year. Along with the activities, the Seniors sponsor a play, raffle, and dance to make the evening a success.

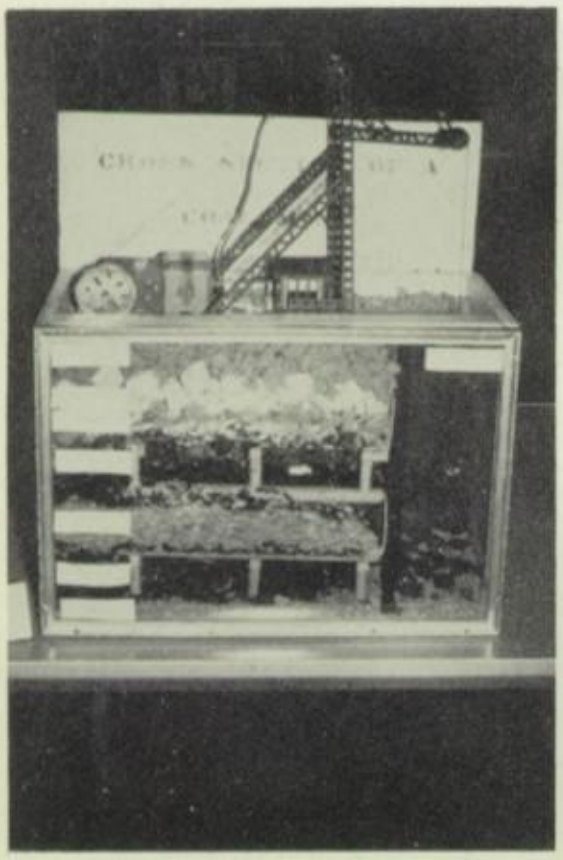
WINNING BULLETIN BOARD

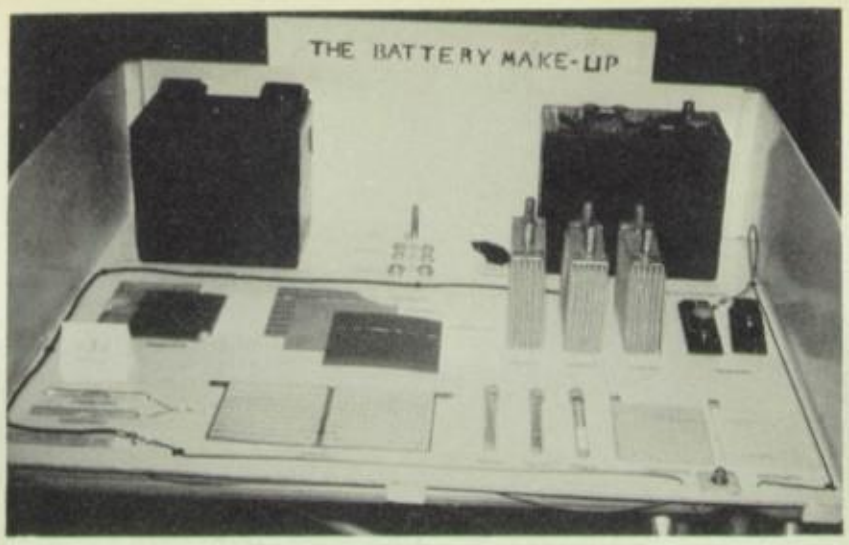
The Election Assembly, held November 8, was presented by the Sr. English Composition Class. Eight students gave brief speeches, stating the Republican and Democratic viewpoints on major issues. Political demonstrations followed, and prizes were awarded for the best posters and the most eye-catching homeroom bulletin board. An election was held after the assembly.

STUDENT DAY

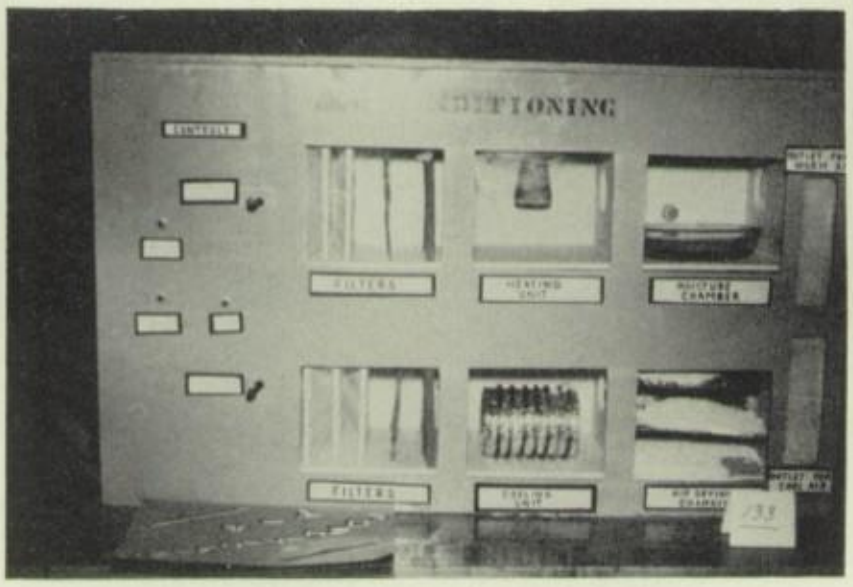
Student Day, held January 11, was one of the high-lights of the school year. The seniors took over the administration and faculty positions for the day. Each senior got a glimpse of what the administration and faculty encounter during a typical school day.

SCIENCE FAIR





The annual Science Fair, supervised by Mr. Wiser, was held January 31. It was the height of the academic year, as the students competed for prizes.



Snow was in the news this winter. Fleetwood was hit by the worst snowstorm in many years, but the students did not mind. But what about those days we missed? Well, who needs summer vacation?

CHARLEY'S AUNT

This is the world-famous farce which has moved millions to tears of laughter. Jack Chesney, violently in love with Kitty Verdun, and Charles, equally enamoured of Miss Spettigue, invite the young ladies to their rooms for luncheon--in order to meet Charley's wealthy aunt from Brazil ("where the nuts come from"). But alas, the millionaire aunt sends word that she will have to defer her visit for a few days. What is to be done? The dear young things must not be compromised --no, never!--but neither will the youths give up the opportunity of declaring their love. The problem is solved by forcing another Oxford undergraduate into a black satin skirt, a lace fichu, a pair of mitts, an old-fashioned cap and wig. As Charley's Aunt then, this old frump is introduced to the sweethearts, to Jack's father (who is advised by the son to marry her millions), and to Stephen Spettigue, Miss Spettigue's guardian. The sweethearts hug and kiss Charley's dear old aunt; the two men make love to her. Then the real aunt turns up, assumes another name. In the comic confusion which results, young Lord Baberley, posing as the aunt, tricks Stephen Spettigue into agreeing to the marriage of his ward to Charley, the real aunt marries Jack's father, Jack gets Miss Verdun, and "Charley's Aunt" regains the fortune he lost at gambling and obtains the hand of the girl he loves.

SENIOR PROM

The Senior Prom proved to be a gay, grand finale to our 1960-1961 school term. The theme, "Evening in Paris," added romance and glamour to a gala affair. The king and queen reigned under a star-studded sky. Music was provided by Saxie Schollenberger and his orchestra. Everyone had an exotic time at the biggest event of the year.

IT HAPPENS EVERY DAY.....

"It's gonna be a great day!"

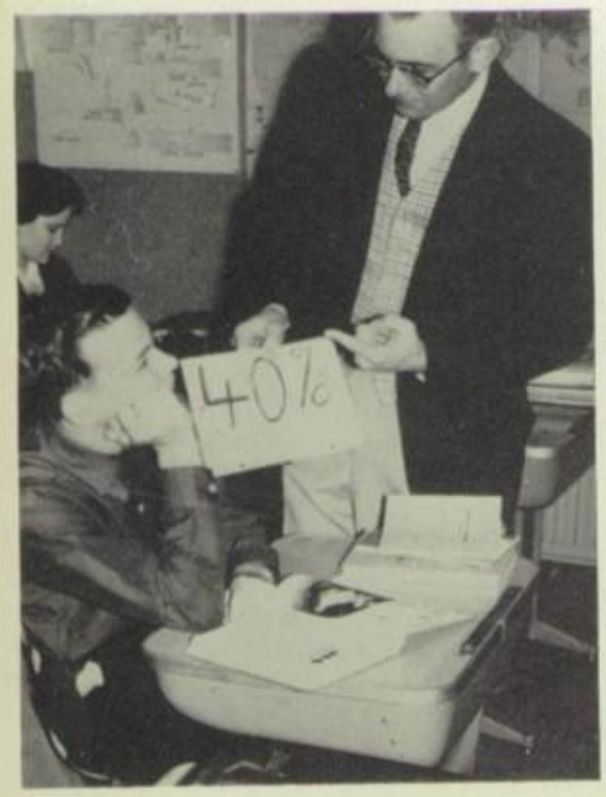
"I'll knock 'em dead today!"

"Sure enjoyed that basketball game but . . . . . !"

"Another quiz . . . now I'm really sick!"

"Lunch ----- the oasis in the desert !"

"Well, I ate; but I still don't feel better!"



"Is forty per cent below passing?"

"But I tried, Mr. Hutz!"

"I'm tired and I wanna go home!"

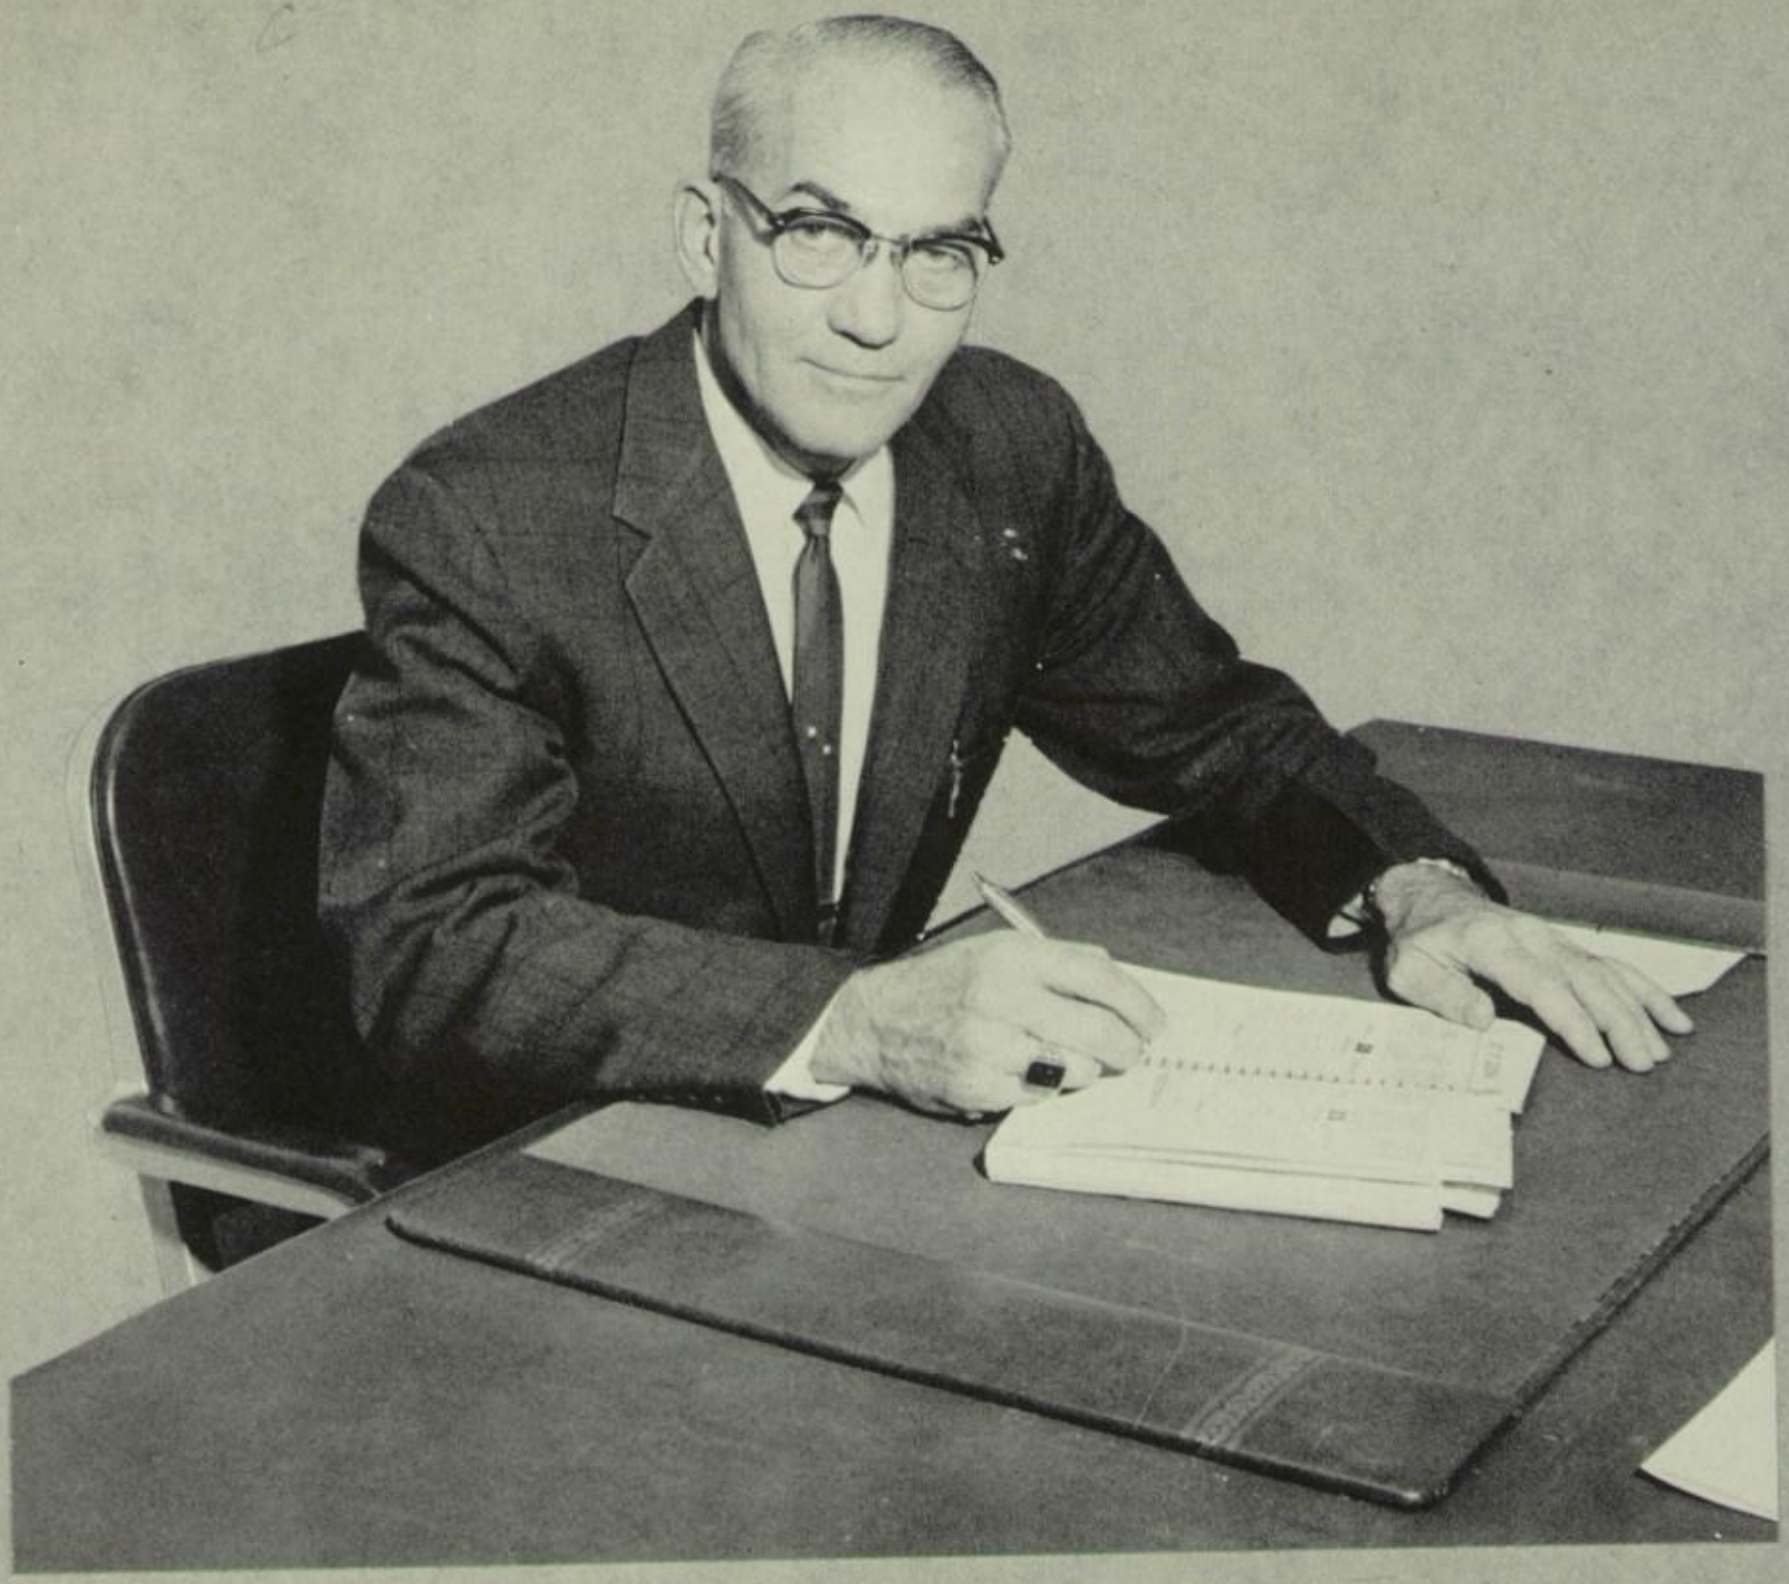
SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

For twelve years past you have been attending the Public Schools of the Fleetwood area. It is an established fact that the school exists on the good will of the people. As you review the history of the last eleven years of the schools of our area you will note that the good will of the people is very much in evidence. The continued improvement of the schools of the area will become your responsibility and only as you foster good will towards these schools will the generations that follow you enjoy the benefits of sound public school education.

Allow me to congratulate you on your graduation. May your future bring to you all the success and happiness you may rightfully deserve.

William L. James
Supervising Principal



Congratulations to the Class of 1961!

A part of your education has now been completed. The balance you will receive as you go onto your chosen vocation or into fields of higher education.

I am sure that each one of you have heard that the destiny of America can be expressed by the words, "of the people, for the people, and by the people." The fulfillment of this destiny is also your responsibility as an individual. You must be willing to take the initiative in many things including the following: 1. Think for yourself. 2. Save for yourself. 3. Invest for yourself. 4. Plan for yourself.

The key to your future happiness is the ability to develop your spiritual life. This key will open the door to a life of peace, contentment, and love for your fellowman.

May success follow you in all your future undertakings.

Arthur J. Heckman

ARTHUR J. HECKMAN
PRINCIPAL

As assistant principal of Fleetwood High School, Mr. Daniels leads a busy life. He fills his day with teaching biology and history, keeping school attendance records, taking care of school funds, sponsoring the hobby club, and attending to other administrative duties.

Miss Kelchner and Miss Camilli are the efficient secretaries of the elementary and high schools. Their duties, including typing, ordering supplies, operating the ditto machine, and other tasks, are carried out with speed and accuracy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Advisor - Mr. Spentzas

Secretary - D. Bedard

President - H. Weber

V. President - A. Yenser

Treasurer - E Koch

The Student Council's main purpose is teaching and encouraging good citizenship in a democracy. It also has the responsibility of maintaining respectable conduct and good sportsmanship. This year the Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Constantine Spentzas for the third year, has added many new features to its calendar of activities. Among these were the presidential political rally in November, the organization of the faculty--student relations committee, and the revision of its constitution.
